Yogyakarta, 1 March 2010

Dr. Sugito, MA
Faculty of Education
Universitas Negeri Yogyakarta

Dear Sir,

Let me offer you very warm greetings from Yogyakarta, Indonesia, while wishing you are always blessed with great health and prosperity.

Following up our email communication, in my capacity as the Chair of the Organizing Committee of Early Childhood Education in and for Socio Cultural Diversity to be held in Yogyakarta, Indonesia. I am writing to formally invite you to be speaker at the conference, of which theme is “ Early Childhood Education in and for Socio Cultural Diversity” (as a foundation to character building)”. I would be grateful if you can deliver a keynote talk on “Parenting Education”

I would appreciate if you could send us your possibly full paper at the earliest of your convenience but no later than 30 April 2010.

Please accept my appreciation for your attention and willingness to fulfill our invitation. We hope you can really make it so that we can meet our mind concerning the development of education in Indonesia and at the same time strengthen the collaboration between our institutions.

I am looking forward to hearing your confirmation.

Yours sincerely,

Sugito
Chair, the Organizing Committee
