The information in this prospectus relates primarily to the session 2010/11 and every effort has been made to ensure that it is correct at the time of going to press in July 2009. The University will use all its reasonable efforts to deliver the programmes as described.

However, the University reserves the right for any reason without notice to withdraw or change any of the programmes included in this prospectus, to alter tuition fees, entry requirements, the facilities and/or services available from or provided by or on behalf of the University. You should also note that the choice of subjects may be limited by considerations of timetable, staffing and/or available places on a programme.

If you accept an offer of a place on a programme, the relationship between you and the University will be governed by the Rules and Regulations for Students, which includes the Student Agreement.

Please see:
www.bristol.ac.uk/secretary/studentrulesregs
www.bristol.ac.uk/secretary/studentrulesregs/agreement.html

Please note that the Student Agreement acknowledges that the University must manage its resources efficiently and may change the content and/or method of delivery of programmes, and/or discontinue, not provide or combine programmes. If the University discontinues or does not provide your programme, or changes it significantly before it begins, you may withdraw your application and an appropriate refund of tuition fees will be made. Please see the Student Agreement for further information.

Prospective students should take into account when selecting a programme of study the inherent risks of their chosen career. For more information, see www.bristol.ac.uk/prosp-health-safety
