Dear Editorial Digest Journal of Nanomaterials and Biostructures,
Managing Editor of Virtual Company of Physics,
Prof. Mihai Popescu

We hereby would like to submit a manuscript to the Digest Journal of Nanomaterials and Biostructures (DJNB). The manuscript is entitled:

"Cdots and Cdots/S Synthesis from Nam-nam Fruit (Cynometra Cauliflora L.) via Frying Method using Cooking Oil"

This manuscript presents for the first time the synthesis and characterizations of Cdots and Cdots/S with a precursor of nam-nam fruit via frying method using commercial cooking oil. This manuscript has not been conducted before. Moreover, there are no conflict of interests concerning this manuscript.

Hence, we hope that our manuscript can be considered for DJNB.

Best regards,
Wipsar Sunu Brams Dwandaru, PhD

Dear author,

This is a confirmation that we have received your submitted article for publication in DJNB. After evaluation you will be informed if it is accepted for publication and you will receive a confirmation email together with a copyright statement and a proforma invoice for the payment of the publication tax. From receiving the paper it usually takes about three months for acknowledgement of acceptance for publication or not.

Thank you for submitting your paper to our journal,
Editorial Team

Dear author,

Your paper has been accepted for publication. You can find attached the copyright form which must be sent back filled in and the proforma invoice for the payment of the publication tax.

Only wire transfer is accepted at one of the accounts specified in the Proforma Invoice to Beneficiary: "Virtual Company of Physics".

Please specify in sender* and description(details) fields of the bank transfer form:

* customer name, affiliation and personal address;

 number and date of the received Proforma Invoice.

If you do not specify this details, we can not link the bank transfer to you hence the article will not be published and the transfer tax will be unidentified, blocked and returned to the sender's bank.

The proforma invoice is available one month starting with it's issue date. Your paper will be visible on the main site only after the publication tax will be paid, otherwise after one month the proforma invoice will be cancelled and your paper will be automatically rejected.

May I remind you that as specified on the proforma invoice, the BANK CHARGES FOR WIRE TRANSFER ARE SUPPORTED BY THE CUSTOMER !

Our bank does not have any charges for incoming transfers, the charges are deducted by the senders bank and by an intermediary bank (if it is the case of such bank), you must ask at your local bank the fees for the transfer(your bank and intermediary bank). On the payment instructions form you have 3 options BEN, SHA, OUR on "Details of Charges" field, there you must selected OUR (OUR instruction means you will pay all the transfer charges. We will receive all your payment).

Debit/Credit Card transfer is also available through online electronic payment. Please request this option if it is more suitable for you compared to wire transfer. You can pay in any currency, the conversion from your currency to EURO is made automatically by the system. The transfer charges for the online electronic payment are included in the final publication fee requested.

Best Regards,
Virtual Company of Physics
