

SYLLABUS

SUBJECT : BRITISH CULTURE & LITERATURE 1
PROGRAM : ENGLISH LANGUAGE & LITERATURE
CREDIT : 2
CODE : SEN 211
SEMESTER : 3
LECTURER : EKO RUJITO M, HUM

I. Aim:

This lesson aims at introducing the students with information about United Kingdoms of Great Britain. The information covers geography, country, people, identity, attitudes, manners, political life, monarchy, government, parliament, and education. In the end of the semester the students are expected to explain the subjects under study and make comparison with the condition in Indonesia.

II. Organization of Teaching/Learning Activities

This syllabus and the course orientation are given in the first session. This subject will be taught through a class discussion. Students are expected to participate in the discussion and presentation.

III. Progression of the Course

WEEK	TOPIC
1	INTRODUCTION
2	GEOGRAPHY
3	COUNTRY & PEOPLE
4	IDENTITY
5	ATTITUDES (1)
6	ATTITUDES (2)
7	MANNERS (1)
8	MANNERS (2)
9	POLITICAL LIFE
10	MONARCHY (1)
11	MONARCHY (2)
12	GOVERNMENT
13	PARLIAMENT
14	EDUCATION SYSTEM (1)
15	EDUCATION SYSTEM (2)
16	REVIEW

IV. Assessment:

1. Final Test : 30%

2. Presentation : 30%
3. Participation/Tasks : 30%
4. Attendance : 10%

V. Reference:

Encyclopedia Britannica. 2005. Ultimate Reference Suit DVD.

Lavery, Clare. 1994. Focus on Britain Today. London: Macmillan Publishers, Ltd.

O'Driscoll, James. 2003. Britain. Oxford: Oxford University Press.